What You Need To Know Bowman Field Driver Testing Facility closed due to COVID-19 diagnosis Facility to be closed through this week, update to come on reopening date KSP staff to contact those with tests scheduled ALERT: Jefferson County KSP has closed the Bowman Field Driver Testing Facility (Louisville) due to a positive COVID diagnosis. The facility will be closed Mon., Nov. 23 - Fri., Nov. 27. Individuals scheduled for tests will be contacted by KSP to reschedule@KYTCDistrict5 pic.twitter.com/cB01r1nbf — KY State Police (@kystatepolice) November 22, 2020 The facility will be closed Monday, Nov. 23 through Friday, Nov. 27, and KSP said it would provide an update on a reopening date later this week. KSP staff will contact those who scheduled tests about rescheduling. The closure of the facility comes just weeks after seven Kentucky Transportation Cabinet (KYTC) driver license offices closed due to their own COVID-19 cases. Last week, five of the offices reopened while two remain closed. Kentucky's new license is REAL ID compliantKentucky is one of nearly two dozen states who have gotten extensions to introduce REAL IDLOUISVILLE, Ky. — A second Real ID office is now open in Louisville.The Hurstbourne office is at 9112 Leesgate Road and is open Monday to Friday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.Appointments can be made by visiting secure.kentucky.gov/booking/web/Event/Book/259 and are open to residents from any Kentucky county who do not require testing or retesting for their license.Currently, only debit and credit cards are accepted when paying for the federally mandated Real ID at this location, according to the state website.Available appointments for the Leesgate Road location quickly filled up in March, with no additional dates currently listed on the site.But a Kentucky Transportation Cabinet spokeswoman said appointments for April will become available starting March 10, with the Leesgate Road office otherwise remaining in a "soft opening stage."Louisville's other Real ID office is near Bowman Field at 3545 Roger E. Schupp St.Appointments are required to visit that location and can be made via secure.kentucky.gov/booking/web/Event/Book/244, though the site also currently lists no available times in March but several times in April.Gerth: After getting my Real ID, I have one question. How did Kentucky screw up so badly?More: Vision screenings for drivers renewing licenses would be required under Kentucky billTo view a list of other regional Real ID offices in Kentucky, which are also accepting appointments, visit drive.ky.gov/RealID/Pages/Schedule.aspx.The rollout of the Real ID, which complies with security standards enacted by Congress after 9/11, has been beset by delays in Kentucky and several other states.Residents were initially encouraged to acquire a driver's license or state identification card that complies with the Real ID law, which will require the new licenses for those boarding flights in the U.S., by the fall of 2020 before the federal government pushed that deadline to Oct. 1, 2021, due to the coronavirus pandemic.Once that new deadline arrives, Kentucky's standard licenses will no longer be accepted to board U.S. flights or enter restricted federal facilities, like military bases, nuclear power plants or the White House. Kentucky residents can still request and acquire a Real ID after the Oct. 1 deadline, according to state officials.However, if you have a passport and prefer to use that each time you fly domestically, then obtaining a new standard license, which is cheaper than the new "Travel ID," will work.Real ID: Here's what you should know about the new Kentucky driver's licenseHow much will new IDs cost? Those who apply for a Real ID will have the option to choose between a four-year or eight-year credential.The only exception, according to KYTC, are commercial driver's licenses (CDLs), which are only available in an eight-year version.This story has been updated.Reach Billy Kobin at bkobin@courierjournal.com. LOUISVILLE, Ky. — A third Kentucky Transportation Cabinet Driver Licensing Regional Office is opening in Jefferson County, Gov. Andy Beshear announced Thursday, giving residents another place to obtain a Real ID.The new location is at 4919 Dixie Highway Suite A in Pleasure Ridge Park and was previously a branch location of the Jefferson County Circuit Court Clerk's Office.KYTC is taking over the office as part of its phased adoption of driver licensing services for all of Kentucky, with twenty counties in the Bluegrass State making the transition to date, Beshear's office said Thursday in a news release.By June 30, 2022, circuit court clerk offices in each of Kentucky's 120 counties will no longer handle the traditional model of issuing licenses and permits. Instead, the state transportation cabinet's Driver Licensing Regional Offices will be the place for residents to receive and renew licenses, learner permits and ID cards.The new Dixie Highway location is the 18th KYTC regional office to open.Its operating hours will be 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday, and residents of any county can visit any of the regional offices.The Dixie Highway location will initially only take appointments and no walk-ins, according to Beshear's office. Residents can sign up for appointments at all locations at drive.ky.gov, and Dixie Highway location appointments can be made via secure.kentucky.gov/booking/web/Event/Book/263.Gerth: After getting my Real ID, I have one question. How did Kentucky screw up so badly?Like the other regional offices, the Dixie Highway location will process applications for Real IDs as well as standard licenses and ID cards.Kentuckians who require driver testing (primarily first-time carholders) must successfully do so with the Kentucky State Police before applying at a licensing office. (Driver testing appointments in some counties have been hard to come by, so keep that in mind.Anyone applying for a Real ID must go in person to a KYTC regional office and bring along proof of identity, residence and social security. For more info on needed documents, visit drive.ky.gov/RealID/Pages/IDocument-Guide.aspx.The rollout of Real IDs, which were created out of a post-9/11 security measure, and the deadline for acquiring them have been characterized by delays.The federal government initially planned on requiring Americans to have a Real ID to board domestic flights by the fall of 2020 before pushing that deadline to the fall of 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.This past April, the Department of Homeland Security announced it was extending that enforcement date yet again by 19 months, giving travelers until May 3, 2023, to obtain a Real ID.So take a deep breath, travelers. You still have plenty of time to get a Real ID if you do not already have one.What to know about the Real ID: Here's how to get yoursOnce that 2023 deadline finally arrives, Kentucky's standard licenses will no longer be accepted to board U.S. flights or enter restricted federal facilities, like military bases, nuclear power plants or the White House. (State officials have noted that residents will still be able to apply for and acquire Real IDs after the deadline.)"I encourage Kentuckians who plan to travel by air in the future, or visit a restricted federal facility, to prepare now and get the proper ID, whether at the Dixie Highway office or any of the other KYTC Driver Licensing Regional Offices," Kentucky Transportation Cabinet Secretary Jim Gray said in Thursday's news release.If you have a passport and prefer to use that each time you fly domestically, then obtaining a new standard license, which is cheaper than the new Real ID, will work.More: U of L wanted $80 million in its lawsuit against James Ramsey. It may only get a fractionThose seeking to renew or replace a standard-issue license or ID card can still do so by mail or drop-off with the circuit court clerk office in the license holder's county of residence, provided there has been no change of name or address and the license holder does not require driver testing by Kentucky State Police.But after June 30, circuit court clerks will no longer process mail applications, according to state officials. Main-in forms are available via kycourts.gov/COVID-19/Pages/Drivers-License-Services.aspx.The two additional KYTC regional driver licensing offices in Louisville are at Bowman Field and on Leesgate Road in Hurstbourne, though the Bowman Field location is temporarily closed, according to the state website.Other regional offices are in Bowling Green, Burlington, Catlettsburg, Columbia, Elizabethtown, Frankfort, Jackson, Lexington, Madisonville, Morehead, Owensboro, Paducah, Prestonsburg, Richmond and Somerset.Here's what else to know about the Real ID:After I get the new ID, how long is it valid?Previously, Kentucky drivers had to renew their license every four years, unless they moved addresses. The new standard license will work for you. You can wait until you are within a six-month renewal window to get it.Reach Billy Kobin at bkobin@courierjournal.com.
